Dokustelle Austria	20000	Austria	An antiracist organisation fighting to dismantle anti-Muslim racism. They are analysing the impact of counter-terrorism and counter-radicalisation measures on groups perceived as Muslim in Austria in order to fight the consolidation of common stereotypes. The money was used to disseminate the advocacy paper "Community Evaluation: Knowledge, Power and Political Islam," continue to produce the yearly report on anti-Muslim racism, and strengthen their network, community and
in our bodies - on the streets	20000	Central & Eastern Europe	A transnational collective of somatics practitioners bringing generative, politicized somatics to activists in the regions of Central and Eastern Europe and the Caucasus. Politicized somatics is an approach to healing and transformation that acknowledges the interconnectedness of personal and collective healing and well-being, recognizing how we are part of creating the societal conditions that can imbue systems that step out of the logics of disconnection from self and others. This grant provided core funding for the organisation.
Trans Mreža Balkan	20000	Croatia	A transfeminist network by and for trans, intersex, and gender-variant people and organizations from the Balkans. Besides promoting regional connection and exchange, Trans Mreža Balkan is concerned about the role of strategic communications to counter media corruption in the mainstream. Because of continued political turmoil in the region, the movement received core funding to further embed the voices of their regional network into the ongoing national struggles in Montenegro, Serbia and Macedonia.
re-set	20000	Czech Republic	A platform run by movement organisers in the Czech Republic that facilitates a space for grassroots actors to think about their long-term political strategies. Historically, Re-set stemmed from housing rights organising, but they have evolved into wider movement building work. This grant specifically went to support local tenants movements across Czech Republic harness their political power.

Organisation	Grant amount	Country	Description
European Jews for Palestine (EJP)	20000	Denmark	A grassroots European network of 27 member organisations across 17 countries, operating as an umbrella body that coordinates anti-Zionist Jewish organising while challenging Zionist institutions' monopoly on Jewish life and politics in Europe. They organise monthly meetings to plan and coordinate their activities, which are built around ending European complicity with Israeli occupation, apartheid, and genocide. They push for measures such as an arms embargo and the scrapping of the IHRA definition of antisemitism, while also fighting the repression of pro-Palestine dissent across Europe. The grant went into supporting their ongoing work.
Ellos Deatnu! [Long Live Deatnu!]	20000	Finland	A group organising around decolonisation and self-determination of Sámi people and their stewardship capacity of the river Deatnu. This grant supports community-led knowledge-sharing spaces and land-based interventions that strengthen Sámi communities' role in protecting their territories and responding to the river's rapidly changing natural and social ecosystems.
Collectif #EcolePourTous	20000	France	An organisation fighting for equal access to education for children and young people in France who are excluded or marginalised because of extreme poverty, nationality, or ethnic minority status. They believe that the right to education is essential for long lasting social change so they target people who have experienced violations of the fundamental right to education to prepare the next generation of critical thinkers and doers. They thereby develop strategic campaigns and work closely with schools and other institutions to bring changes that empower youths directly. This grant provides core funding to carry out this work.
Histoires Crépues	20000	France	A French anti-racist media association founded in 2020 by video artist and journalist Seumboy Vrainom, and now one of the largest anti-racism channels in the French-speaking world with over 900,000 subscribers. This grant supports their production of videos, documentaries, and broadcasts that analyse current events through a decolonial lens and challenge far-right narratives in French public debate.

Strong Wings (Sudfa Media)	20000	France	"Echoes of the sudanese revolution" can be seen written on their social media and couldn't describe the group better. This collective was founded by Sudanese and French activists who met during the 2019 Sudanese revolution in Lyon. Their work centres on amplifying the voices of Sudanese grassroots resistance committees and exiled activists - telling their stories in their own terms-, by translating Arabic texts into French, organising public events across Europe and Africa, and building transnational solidarity networks that challenge dominant media narratives and counter the under-representation of Sudan's war and democratic struggles. This grant supports their work amplifying the voices of Sudanese civil society through translation, public events, and transnational solidarity networks.
Les Voix Eclairées	20000	France	A collective founded in 2023 in Joigny, a rural area of France, bringing together fifteen women directly affected by the oppressions they fight with the aim of connecting feminist and anti-racist struggles in rural territories where these issues are often invisible. They run monthly workshops against discrimination, perform participatory lectures that blend personal storytelling with political analysis and build community in the periphery. Les Voix Eclairées creates opportunities for healing, skill-sharing, and collective organising rooted in the belief that rural areas are also (if not more) important places to fight systemic oppression. This grant provides core funding to carry out this work.
Collectif Sensé	20000	France	A grassroots group created by exiled people and former social workers with the aim of building a horizontal, militant, self-managed space in Marseille. Created by and for racialised and undocumented people, their space serves as a movement hub where different collectives converge. It allows members to organise, exchange ideas and build lasting solidarity via cultural workshops, trainings on legal rights and access services for exiled people — mostly women who are victims of violence. The space also enhances gift economy practices amongst activists and functions as a safe port for those in extremely precarious situations to meet and rest.
La Bléd association (Yakoua Collective)	20000	France	YAKOUA is an international collective of QBiPoC feminist self-defence trainers working for gender and racial justice based in France, Belgium and Switzerland. They tailor feminist self-defense practices for a racialised audience and lead a network of mutual support, enabling trainers and practitioners to share experiences, tools and resources around bodily autonomy, self-preservation and social justice. This grant went into core funding for collective to unite, train and develop a course for women and queer people experiencing racism on a daily basis.

Tant que je serai noire (TQJSN) (As Long As I Am Black)	20000	France	A grassroots, afrofeminist media and community organization based in France. Founded in 2020, Tant Que Je Serai Noire (As Long As I Am Black) advocates for reproductive justice, centering the experiences of Black women and gender minorities across the French-speaking world. They use cultural production (podcasts, events, publications) and community organizing to address systemic racism in healthcare, reproductive oppression, and gendered violence. This grant went to sustain and scale their political education, community organizing, and narrative change work.
IWS - International Women* Space	20000	Germany	A self-organised feminist, anti-racist group based in Berlin that is refugee and migrant-led. They work to highlight the complex intersecting layers of oppression that refugee and migrant women* experience due to their gender, race, abilities, nationality, and migration status in Berlin and Brandenburg. They do outreach workshops in Brandenburg where they are closer to the Lagers (refugee temporary housing facilities). Besides, IW*S empowers refugee and migrant women by sharing knowledge and ideas and inviting experts on relevant topics for ongoing peer to peer learning and support structures. This grant provides a continuation of core funding for IW*S.
Bodywork Community Salon	20000	Germany	A weekly initiative that provides access to free bodywork, somatic trauma therapy, herbal medicine, community ear acupuncture (NADA), and tool-sharing workshops for Palestinians, BIPOC, allies, and activists in Berlin. Their work supports those affected by the ongoing genocide in Gaza, the broader political climate in the Levant region, and the increasing state repression within Germany. With this grant they want to build up a Scholarship program to make bodywork education accessible for Palestinians and Arabic-speaking individuals in Berlin.
The Black Sex Worker Collective BERLIN (THE BSWC-BERLIN gUG)	20000	Germany	A collective based in Berlin that seeks to amplify the voices of Black sex workers by doing political service provision and community organising. The work entails peer support, legal assistance, housing, and other basic needs. Their goal is to create a safe space where the unique experiences and needs of current and former Black sex workers are validated and responded to with appropriate, resource-based support. The organisation emphasises the importance of centring the specific realities of Black people within broader sex work visibilisation and political subjectivity. The grant went into securing essential equipment, complete necessary upgrades, cover rent, leadership stipends, and strengthen their infrastructure through transformative programming and base building.

Organisation	Grant amount	Country	Description
WE AID gGmbH (Global Asylum Seeker Human Rights Defenders Committee GASHDC)	20000	Germany	A radical social justice movement in Germany founded and led by exiled human rights defenders who have themselves endured torture and imprisonment, positioning asylum seekers at the forefront of demanding accountability and systemic change around inhumane migration policies in Europe. This grant supports their frontline work pushing for genuine protection of asylum seekers, to upend inhuman treatment of refugees and promote dignified life and treatment for people on the move.
welcome united	15000	Germany	A transnational network of self-organised migrant justice and anti-racist groups working through practical solidarity, political resistance against border regimes, and cross-movement connection. This grant covers visas, travel, food, and translation for their Transborder Summercamp 2025 — a space for exchange, skill-sharing, and network-building, ensuring people from the Global South and those without resources can participate fully.
Sudan uprising	20000	Germany	An informal collective and political platform, founded by Sudanese diaspora and Sudanese-German activists in Germany at the beginning of the Sudanese Revolution (2018-2019). It was born to support the uprising in Sudan with a special focus on migration and EU migration policy. SUG is also working in alliances and networks from the Global South in Germany, fighting for the freedom of movement and acting as a voice of the so-called voiceless people. The grant supported their efforts towards building a democratic left-wing alliance of exiled Sudanese people in Europe.
KriSol c/o Prof. Dr. Robin Celikates FU Berlin, Institute for Philosophy	20000	Germany	A platform by and for people working in universities, research, and cultural institutions in Berlin, developing infrastructure to protect academic freedom and university autonomy. The alliance wants to create a network of solidarity that leaves room for the heterogeneity of political positions as well as for the diverse cultures of different fields of study. By giving critical scholarships and creating programs, they resist against the securitization of universities, discrediting of empirical knowledge, and exclusion of marginalised groups from academic life. This grant went to fund their ongoing work.

Organisation	Grant amount	Country	Description
ELLINIKI ENOSI GIA TA DIKAIOMATA TOU ANTHROPOU (Golden Dawn Watch)	20000	Greece	An initiative that has monitored and publicly broadcasted the landmark five-year trial of Golden Dawn, found in 2020 to be a criminal organisation responsible for organised racist violence in Greece. This grant allows the group to complete their trial monitoring work, organise a closing event, and publish their findings as the case reaches its final verdict.
United African Women Organization (UAWO)	20000	Greece	A grassroots, Black feminist collective founded and led by African and Black migrant women based in Athens, Greece. They host weekly assemblies which help plan campaigns for migrants' citizenship rights, they provide survivor-centred support against gender-based violence and they create spaces for healing and political education through storytelling and cultural events. With a community hub in the city, UAWO wants to strengthen intergenerational, migrant-led feminist power rooted in care and intersectional solidarity. The grant went into running a series of intergenerational, intercultural workshops to turn lived experience into shared advocacy and lasting collective power.
Forensic Architecture Initiative Athens (FAIA)	17000	Greece	A team of architects, artists, filmmakers, journalists, and engineers undertaking spatial and multimedia investigations to fight human rights violations and environmental violence, producing evidence to support affected communities in seeking justice. Their work has pivoted the way civil society can instrumentalise technology to build (and win) cases against unsurmountable forces like big corp and oppressive governments, using rational evidence to disarm corruption and buyouts. This grant supports their ongoing work centring on state and corporate violence.
Egyenlő Esélyekkel az Iskolapadban Egyesület (Equal Opportunities in School Association): Deviszont Community Space	20000	Hungary	A collective working with working-class and Roma youths in vocational schools on the outskirts of Budapest, building their knowledge of grassroots organising and laying the groundwork for citizen autonomy and long-term movement participation. This grant provides a continuation of core funding for the organisation.

Organisation	Grant amount	Country	Description
School of Public Life	20000	Hungary	An education center for activists to exchange and learn about community organising and movement building in Budapest, Hungary. They support citizens dedicated to building a democratic and just Hungary, especially members of marginalized communities and those working on their behalf to organise themselves and stand up for their rights and interests effectively. This grant was given as emergency support to counter oppressive legislation in Hungary aiming to dissolve civil society organisations and prevent civic engagement.
Kazán Community House (Alliance for Collaborative Real Estate Development)	20000	Hungary	A grassroots hub in Budapest's 8th district hosting political education, media labs and movement gatherings for working-class and marginalised communities who live in the area. This grant went into core funding, campaigning and community outreach for their program "From Neighbourhood to Community" that invited impacted communities to come together and build shared resistance around the issues they have in common.
SWAN - The Sex Workers' Rights Advocacy Network	20000	Hungary	A sex-worker led regional network advocating for rights, safety, and well-being of sex workers in Central-Eastern Europe and Central Asia (CEECA). SWAN brings together 23 member organizations across 20 countries in the region, uniting groups that are either led by or work with sex workers. SWAN advocates for the decriminalization of sex work, access to health and social services, and the recognition of sex workers' human rights. This grant provides core funding, covering salaries and the continuation of their advocacy for decriminalisation and access to health and social services.
Community Action Tenants Union (CATU) Ireland	20000	Ireland	A member-funded tenants' union operating across the island of Ireland, committed to a community organising model built on collective action that goes beyond charity or service provision. They are functionally similar to a workplace trade union, except that their focus is on housing and community issues. They prevent illegal evictions, push for improved housing standards, win back unfairly held deposits and run larger campaigns around issues such as the need for a greater provision of public housing. This grant provides core funding for the organisation.

Movimento Migranti e Rifugiati Napoli	20000	Italy	A migrant-led movement in Naples that holds monthly decision-making assemblies to support migrants and refugees in their fight for dignified life. With this grant specifically, they aim to expand access to legal, educational, health, and housing support for migrant communities and want to enhance their capacity to organize national mobilizations, advocacy campaigns and develop programs for women, children, and other historically marginalised groups. This grant provides core funding to the organisation at their 10-year anniversary mark (congrats!)
Porco Rosso	20000	Italy	An anti-fascist, ecological, transfeminist, and anti-racist community space and collective laboratory based in Palermo, Sicily. Since 2016, its flagship "Sans-Papiers" project has provided weekly drop-in social and legal support for migrants and local residents facing precarious situations. They also carry out monitoring projects on migrant reception conditions and the criminalisation of boat captains. Porco Rosso is deeply embedded in local neighbourhood organising and creating networks, committed to forming communities and political movements built on trust and defending the rights of everyone. This grant provided a continuation of their activities via core funding.
Sale Docks	20000	Italy	A squatted cultural and social centre in Venice, Italy, occupied in 2007 by activists who wanted to challenge the role of art vis-à-vis gentrification and create a space for political resistance in a city dominated by tourism and private art institutions. Sale Docks is run by a horizontal collective of volunteers who host grassroots movements such as the No Grandi Navi committee fighting cruise ships, the Biennialocene assembly for art workers' rights, and Art Not Genocide Alliance, which campaigned against the Israeli Pavilion at the Venice Biennale. It supports local struggles against extractivism, advocating for precarious cultural workers, and building solidarity networks that connect Venice with global movements. This grant provided a continuation of their activities via core funding.

Organisation	Grant amount	Country	Description
Migrants and Refugees Movement of Caserta ODV	20000	Italy	A movement born in 2002 from anti-racist organising in Caserta, composed of Italian activists and migrants and refugees from the province, fighting for migrant rights through assemblies, campaigns, and public demonstrations. This grant supports a large-scale information campaign reaching communities through social media, outreach, house-to-house meetings, and workplace organising.
Gegužės 1-osios profesinė sąjunga - G1PS	20000	Lithuania	A progressive grassroots labour and feminist union in Lithuania taking political action to promote workplace democracy, sustainable economy and solidarity, with a particular focus on precarious and migrant workers in sectors with no union representation and thus more prone to rights violations. With this grant they aim to: train local labour law consultants and union organisers, coordinate a Platform Workers' Union that can get gig work recognised as labour, establish a foreigners branch in G1PS and start a proper campaign against xenophobia in the workplace and finally, monitor the current restrictive law on strikes changes in Lithuania.
Trans Autonomija	20000	Lithuania	A trans-rights organisation in Vilnius founded in 2019, ensuring trans voices lead policy and public narrative work while centring the most marginalised: trans femmes, trans migrants, trans people with disabilities, and trans youth. This grant provides core funding for their advocacy, community building, and human rights monitoring work.
Association for climate and social justice Kolektiv Zet Skopje (Balkan Commons Network)	20000	Macedonia	A network building collective resistance across the Balkans by connecting climate justice and ecology with other social movement struggles, making sure that local struggles are linked for translocal and transnational action. They facilitate skill-sharing and capacity building with movements in the region while also bringing climate justice and ecology perspectives into the agenda of grassroots movements. This grant supports the organisation of their annual gathering and the continued development of the network.

Organisation	Grant amount	Country	Description
TransFormA	15000	Macedonia	The first and only initiative in North Macedonia working on the protection and promotion of the rights of transgender people, led by the transgender community itself. Their work on community visibility and protection of individuals, better accessibility to social, legal and healthcare systems and advocacy to ensure proper regulation of transition medical procedures. This grant provided a continuation of their activities via core funding.
Queer Montenegro	20000	Montenegro	Feminist, queer, and sapphic-led, Queer Montenegro is dismantling the patriarchal and heteronormative machinery one front at a time, through public advocacy, policy lobbying, and international solidarity. They are among the principal architects of Montenegro Pride, an event that is celebration and confrontation in equal measure: a collective refusal to be silenced in a context where queer visibility is still met with hostility. Their work insists that emancipation is not a request, but a demand. This grant provided a continuation of their activities via core funding.
Maruf Foundation / Stichting Maruf	20000	Netherlands	A long standing international platform uplifting queer muslim experiences, Maruf provides safe, supportive spaces for queer Muslims to connect, grow, and access professional development while training professionals to better support queer Muslims across sectors like education and healthcare. This grant supported their Queer Muslim Voyager programme, a translocal leadership development initiative designed for queer Muslims across Europe. It supports current and emerging community leaders in cultivating sustainable, community-rooted leadership in the face of systemic injustices such as Islamophobia, queerphobia, racism and burnout.
Stichting FundAction	20000	Netherlands	An activist-led participatory grantmaking fund that shifts decision-making power over funding from funders to affected communities and activists working on the frontlines. FundAction brings together a growing community of grassroots activists across Europe who decide together what gets funded. This was a solidarity grant to this fellow participatory grantmaker so that they can keep doing radical, community-oriented funding.

Organisation	Grant amount	Country	Description
Syrian Volunteers Netherlands	30000	Netherlands	A refugee-led grassroots organisation based in Amsterdam that brings together organisers, artists, researchers, and community builders with lived experience of displacement to build refugee-led power across Europe. What began as small volunteer initiatives has grown into a national and transnational network linking refugee-led and grassroots groups across Europe. They use their platform to challenge Fortress Europe by creating new infrastructures of belonging and solidarity rather than seeking integration into institutional systems.
MiGreat	20000	Netherlands	A grassroots organisation in Amsterdam by people who previously offered aid along the Balkan migration route, shifting from humanitarian work to root-cause action that challenges the European border regime. Largely composed of people with lived experience of migration, MiGreat runs workshops, a hotline and does direct actions such as flyer campaigns at airports and sending activists onto deportation flights to disrupt them, work that this grant helped happen. Their work combines practical resistance with public campaigning, social media outreach and election advocacy. MiGreat believes that borders are a form of passport apartheid and that change happens when ordinary people refuse to cooperate with the system.
Global Energy Embargo for Palestine	20000	Palestinian Territories	An international coalition responding to Palestinian trade unions' call to disrupt energy flows to and from Israel, running the 'No Harbour for Genocide' campaign targeting maritime supply chains of military equipment and energy to Israel. This grant provides campaigning funds in direct solidarity with the Palestinian call to
Pomoc SOC	20000	Poland	A solidarity organisation supporting people on the move in Poland through border violence monitoring, material aid, legal support, and campaigning against racism and rising xenophobia. This grant provides core funding to build the team supporting this work and create a fund for emergency response resilience.
Stowarzyszenie Przy Pulaskiego (Rozbrat)	20000	Poland	Active for 30 years now, Rozbrat is the oldest social centre in Central-Eastern Europe serving as a key infrastructure hub for intersectional struggles across housing, anti-racism, workers' rights, the environment, and feminism in Poznan and beyond. This grant provides core funding for the group as they fight against eviction and privatisation of their space.

NOMADA (Polish Palestinian Justice Initiative Kaktus)	20000	Poland	A Palestinian-led initiative founded by a team of Polish, Palestinian, and Polish Jewish women with decades of experience in social justice, anti-capitalist, and international solidarity activism. Their work covers strategic litigation such as filing legal complaints against Israeli officials for war crimes, challenging Polish arms trade complicity, and combating Islamophobic hate speech. They also provide material, legal, and psychological support to Palestinian evacuees in Poland, with a trauma-informed, intersectional approach that centres the voices and agency of survivors. This grant provides core funding for this work to continue.
Kolektyw Kamelia	20000	Poland	A sex worker-led collective advancing rights, safety and visibility for sex workers across Poland, from the streets to institutional decision-making spaces. They build community power through advocacy, cultural interventions and mutual aid. This grant supported the core costs of their community space which is a crucial hub for planning street interventions and community meetings, ensuring they can stay open for drop-ins and host workshops for the community.
Jornal Mapa / Media campaign (Covas do Barroso)	20000	Portugal	An independent media campaign by journalists and activists covering local resistance movements against socio-ecological violations in Portugal. This grant funds media production, film screenings, and debates to raise awareness of anti-extractivist struggles, strengthen affected communities, and drive broader social mobilisation.
Associação Unidos em Defesa de Covas do Barroso (UDCB)	20000	Portugal	Frontline defenders standing against Europe's largest lithium mine in Barroso, Northern Portugal, fighting to protect their territory and communities from the destruction wrought by big-mining, state complicity, and multinational lobbying. This grant provides core funding for their annual Climate Justice Camp.
Roma feminist collective	20000	Romania	A transnational, interdisciplinary network of Roma women created in response to the systemic marginalization and exclusion of Roma women in the labor market, decision-making spaces, and academia—both within feminist and anti-racist movements and the broader Roma advocacy landscape. Grounded in feminist, anti-racist, and intersectional principles, they aim to dismantle structural inequalities and elevate the voices, leadership, and expertise of Roma women and girls globally. This grant provides core funding for the group.

A.casa Cluj Social Center / Asociatia Spatiu 161	20000	Romania	A radical autonomous community space in Cluj hosting informal political groups who share principles of horizontal organising, anti-capitalism, solidarity, and mutual care. This grant provides core funding for the renovation and maintenance of the space so it can continue to serve the movements that call it home.
UG Ne dam Nu dau	20000	Serbia	A dedicated group of active citizens in Serbia working to motivate people to take an active role in shaping their community through public discussions, awareness campaigns, and civic participation initiatives, work that is particularly important in the context of governmental crackdown and corruptin as in Serbia. This grant supports their organising work ahead of the upcoming local elections in the region.
Kolektiv Talas TIRV	20000	Serbia	Collective of trans and non-binary activists that address the problems of the TIGV (trans, intersex and gender variant) community in Serbia with a broader intersectional-feminist approach. They are implementing educational, community-building and -support programs in order to empower young community members to engage in activism and stand up for themselves. This grant provides core funding for this work to continue.
Klara i Rosa	20000	Serbia	An organisation in Subotica, northern Serbia, working to bring together a polarised multi-ethnic city through cultural programmes and critical education that help people blend beyond perceived difference, fostering dialogue and civic participation in a neglected part of the country. This grant supports their programmatic activities, covering space, utilities, salaries, and equipment.
Libergraf	20000	Serbia	A civil society organisation founded in 1998 by youth activists in Užice, working across youth inclusion, education, urbanism, alternative culture, environmental protection and anti-extractivism against fascist and corrupt forces in western Serbia. This grant provides core funding for the organisation.

Organisation	Grant amount	Country	Description
ZBOR	20000	Serbia	An informal, grassroots Balkan network of activists, land defenders, and communities resisting harmful mining and the so-called "green transition" they see as colonial resource extraction in disguise, organising through open assemblies, camps, and permanent protest hubs. This grant provides core funding for their work building a broad movement for justice across the region.
CK13	20000	Serbia	An independent social and cultural centre in Novi Sad active for 17 years, building political self-consciousness and igniting the appetite for self-organisation among local youth through political, activist, educational, and cultural program initiatives. This grant provides core funding for the organisation.
Association of the Independent Cultural Scene of Serbia (Magacin Cultural Centre)	20000	Serbia	A cultural and social center that functions as a commons in Belgrade. Because it is a commons, it is a resource managed by the community of users (its assembly) according to the commonly established community guidelines. They create varied programs around arts and culture and serve as a social movement hotspot and convergence space. The space operates on voluntary work from all the users who are driven by the ideas of commoning, social diversity, mutual cooperation, solidarity and tolerance, mutual trust and responsibility.
No Name Kitchen (NKK)	20000	Serbia	A civil movement supporting People on the Move through resource accessibility, direct action and community activities, working in hotspots along the Balkan and Mediterranean routes where systematic criminalization and violent pushbacks toward migrants are commonplace. The Guerrilla grant served to diversify their storytelling playbook via digital activism and artistic practices, expand their advocacy efforts, mobilise community for street actions and launch investigations around violent pushbacks.
Center for Applied Communications (Masina)	20000	Serbia	A Serbian media portal that writes about labor rights and struggles and social movements from Serbia and beyond. This crew wants to lift perspectives from the left, especially considering that mainstream media are controlled by the state in Serbia, and bring a critical approach to topics often neglected or treated from a conservative perspective. The grant went into core activity funding, namely the development of 10 long-form investigative articles, 200+ short stories, and daily social media activity.

Organisation	Grant amount	Country	Description
La Bassa Mar	20000	Spain	A self-organised collective space in rural Spain for and by trans*, inter, non-binary, and queer people, especially those also affected by racism, migration, ableism, and classism, providing a meeting point for local and international activist groups to network, learn and develop political strategies. This community space also serves as a safe haven where frontline groups can rest and recover from everyday organising. This grant provides a continuation of core funding for the organisation.
X-Net	20000	Spain	A Barcelona-based collective and leading voice on digital rights, democracy, and the fight against disinformation, working through policy advocacy, campaigning, litigation, and creative civic action. This grant provides core funding for the organisation.
Plataforma Afectados por la Hipoteca (PA)	20000	Spain	A grassroots housing movement founded in Barcelona in 2009, supporting people at risk of eviction due to mortgage default, rent debt, or housing precarity, now active across Spain and internationally recognised for their wins and base building capacities. This grant supports their international gathering of housing movements to share strategies and build cross-border resistance to the financialisation of housing.
Jornaleras de Huelva en Lucha	20000	Spain	Self-organised and self-led group of women who do union work and advocacy for the rights of seasonal - often migrant - agricultural workers in Spain. The grant supported the continuation of their ongoing work, which currently consists of: holding companies to account of their unlawful, undignified work conditions, their advocacy efforts within unions to develop sections dedicated to seasonal, agricultural workers rights, and legal costs with pending lawsuits.
Conscientious Objection Watch - COW	20000	Turkey	Contentious Objectors are criminalised as evaders in Turkey. Next to defamation, people who reject to do obligatory military service face heavy prison sentences, criminal cases or fines. Contentious Objection Watch (COW) is working on furthering the right to conscientious objection that has not yet been recognized in Turkey, namely doing consultations with conscientious objectors, supporting them with litigation, as well as doing advocacy work in and outside of Turkey. This grant provides a continuation of core funding for COW.

Ylberofilia	6500	Albania	The first trans-led organisation in Albania, based in Tirana, working to protect human rights and improve access to health and labour markets for marginalised groups with a particular focus on the trans community. They have contributed to developing the first hormonal therapy protocol in Albania and are pursuing a landmark legal case for trans people to change their name and gender on ID documents. Our grant went to fund the rental costs for a one-year pilot program supporting homeless trans women in Tirana who wish to exit sex work.
Union for the Rights of Prisoners	9000	Austria	The only association for criminal prisoners in Austria and among one of the only ones in Europe. Founded in 2022 inside a prison, the Union for the Rights of Prisoners advocates for detainees' collective and individual rights, raises public awareness about their situation (including case by case violations of prisoners' basic rights) and challenges the carceral system through legal battles and campaigns. As prison abolitionists, this crew questions the systemic injustices affecting vulnerable people and how that connects to the prison system, using accountability and transformative justice to move beyond victimhood and punishment approaches. This grant provided core funding for the organisation.
Push-Back Alarm Austria	9000	Austria	A self-organised initiative in Austria run by a small volunteer team from racialised and/or working-class backgrounds providing hotline support, individual casework, outreach, and documentation for people facing border violence, disappearance, or criminalisation. This grant supports the production of a short documentary about Ahmad's case, one of the most violent police attacks on people on the move in Austria, to raise awareness as border militarisation intensifies.
No Border Summit	3000	Austria	A collective of activists in Vienna who organise an annual grassroots gathering as a counterpoint to the Vienna Migration Conference hosted by ICMPD, an EU-affiliated border management body. Their activities include workshops, cultural events, public demonstrations and direct actions aimed at exposing and disrupting Europe's border regime, with a focus on centring the voices of refugees, migrants, and racialised communities. Working horizontally and without formal legal status, they create both public and safer closed spaces for strategy-sharing, solidarity, and resistance. The grant was used to fund the 2025 summit in Vienna: "No Border Summit: Abolish ICMPD."

La Fondation Open Collective Europe (Common Ecologies School)	6000	Austria	A movement school without walls: a collective of people creating, circulating, and facilitating knowledge across socio-ecological movements through online and in-person co-learning, working from a decolonial, anti-racist, queerfeminist, and intersectional approach. This grant funded travel of key allies as well as other costs connected to their Autumn Gathering in Barcelona in 2025.
Feminist mobilisations (Femmobi)	9000	Bulgaria	A queer-led, feminist and anti-fascist collective based in Sofia. They organise mass demonstrations on March 8th and November 25th, flash protests, cultural events, and workshops across the country. They want to build a mass feminist, queer, and trans-led movement in Bulgaria, radicalise mainstream feminism, and support local organisers beyond the capital. They are seeking funding for protests, visual identity, fast-response actions, and crowdfunding platform development.
EUCAP	9000	Czech Republic	An autistic-led organisation giving voice to autistic people who face poverty and exclusion, asking questions that are not generally raised in autism research or in advocacy led by non-autistic parents and professionals. This grant continues to build EUCAP's capacity to serve autistic-led organisations across Europe in their advocacy work.
Cuerpas Politikas	9000	Europe	A self-organised, volunteer-run movement and dance festival that brings together about 45 activists with marginalised identities (trans, intersex, queer, BIPOC, disabled, neurodivergent, and migrants) from across Europe each year. The festival is organised by a new non-hierarchical team each year, focused on embodiment, healing, and coalition-building through movement and body-based practices. They seeked funding for venue hire, food, transportation, accessibility measures (including interpreters and personal assistants) and workshop materials.

Association Virâge Hors Paire (CADRE CAGOULE)	9000	France	A collective with an artistic and political no-border approach connecting both shores of the Mediterranean. With the funding they are producing the film "Harraga: Those Who Burn the Borders" which is not simply a documentary about migration but an act of struggle emerging from colonized territories, created by and for those directly affected. Their film serves as a counter-narrative tool, a polyphonic medium of resistance and will be screened in Germany and France.
Magnitude Zéro	9000	France	A feminist organisation based in Paris that uses art, activism, and research to fight gender-based violence, with a strong focus on feminicide. The funding goes towards their project Dia de las Muertas, which uses artistic installations and public events to honour victims, while they also conduct research on feminicide and transfeminicide, advocate for legal recognition of the term in Europe, and run workshops with migrant and precarious communities.
Association Les passager.ères de la carette	9000	France	A feminist, anti-authoritarian peasant collective based in Voiron, France that is building a collective agro-ecological farm in the French countryside. They organise consensus-based decision-making and use the farm as a space for anti-oppression work, training, and networking against the far right. They are seeking funding to host collective work weekends, educational events on agricultural issues and oppression, and networking gatherings for progressive rural movements.
Septembre Infini	9000	France	An informal anti-nuclear collective based in rural France, organising against the Cigéo radioactive waste repository project in Bure. They are preparing a month-long camp to defend "La Gare", a former train station facing expropriation, which they plan to occupy to delay construction. The camp will include construction of indoor spaces, barricades, and social activities, with a focus on queer and feminist organising.
Maison Culturelle Franco-Syrienne	9000	Europe	A self-organised collective of Syrian exiled and local activists in Montreuil who have launched a community-run space combining a popular kitchen, mutual aid hub, and site for organising across diasporas and exiled communities. They run weekly meals, language classes, workshops and solidarity campaigns, operating on a "pay what you can" basis and prioritising popular mutual aid over charity models. The grant went into core funding, particularly to funding a part-time job for an exiled activist as a community coordinator.

Maison des Semences Paysannes Maralpines (MSPM)	9000	France	A climate justice group that has brought together a collective of farmers, gardeners, chefs and distributors who want to preserve and collectively manage farm seeds as an autonomous network. Seeds are a battlefield in the agriculture business, the source from which giant agro-companies create relationships of dependency with small farm owners. It is at the root of a long chain of systemic harm and injustice within the agri-ecology sector. MSPM opposes these practices by actively campaigning against them through creating independent seed banks and doing farmer organising outside of default modes of agricultural production.
Association JUST (Sindiane)	9000	France	An innovative legal, psychological and community health project founded in Marseille for LGBTQIA+ people and women in exile, focusing on offering support with legal and administrative procedures, access to housing, and providing a safe space to talk about personal struggles and experiences of life in exile. With the money, Sindiane has financed meetings among collectives and organisations working in Marseille to share practices and resources about psycho-legal support for queer and wxmen
Afrique-Europe -Interact	9000	Germany	A transnational network bringing together grassroots activists from several African and European countries to fight for freedom of movement, equal rights, and social justice for people on the move, particularly women and children. They want to foster migrant-led coalitions across the region, all the while making demands at the European level for better treatment of migrants and refugees. Together with the Association of Refugees and Migrant Communities in Morocco, they are organising a conference to expose EU migration policies, share resistance strategies, and build solidarity networks across the region, work that this grant funded.

Interalia gGmbH (BiPoC Climate Justice Conference)	9000	Germany	A network of BiPoC climate and social justice activists spread across Europe, working across migrant-led and BiPoC-only collectives to confront the racism, eurocentrism, and colonial dynamics embedded in mainstream climate spaces. This grant supported the organisation of a BiPoC-only climate justice conference in summer 2025, creating space to share strategies, build solidarity, and reclaim climate justice as a decolonial and liberatory struggle.
Manba e.V.	9000	Germany	An intersectional healing initiative based in Berlin, founded and run by queer BIPOC migrants, offering psychological counselling, workshops, and community spaces focused on decolonial, trauma-informed care. They explicitly support Palestinians and activists facing state violence and genocide and reject state funding on political grounds. They are seeking core funding to provide direct mental health support for those impacted by racialised, gendered, and state violence.
Arruda Creative Lab	9000	Germany	A collective of Black, queer, and trans migrant creatives based in rural Brandenburg. They are building an international artist residency in the outskirts of Berlin to develop a barrier-free creative production space as a direct response to the systemic exclusion of Black and PoC queer people from safe, affordable, and supportive creative spaces in Berlin. They are seeking funding to organise a first artist residency bringing together artists who are also doing racial justice activism.
Rainbow Afghanistan Verein	9000	Germany	An organisation founded by Afghan LGBTQI+ refugees that works to rescue LGBTQI+ individuals from Afghanistan and support their rights in Germany. They organise monthly in-person support meetings, produce educational media on refugee and LGBTQI+ rights, and run awareness campaigns on discrimination and anti-migration policies. This grant was used to fund their ongoing organising and community work.
Safer Sex Berlin	9000	Germany	A queer-led volunteer collective founded in 2020 that fights for inclusive, affirming sexual healthcare for women, trans, intersex, and non-binary people in Germany. They maintain a community-curated database of affirming clinics, organise outreach and storytelling campaigns, and advocate for policy change to replace outdated cisnormative risk assessments with a pleasure-centred approach. This grant went to fund the core of their organising work.

Civilfleet Support e.V. (ElHiblu3 Campaign)	9000	Germany	A solidarity alliance of anti-racist initiatives and legal aid organisations working to secure justice for Abdalla, Amara, and Kader, three young men criminalised for steering a boat during a rescue in the Mediterranean. The campaign is run in close consultation with the defendants and their legal team, focusing on creating empathetic narratives and raising awareness about the criminalisation of people on the move. They are seeking funding to print and distribute a bilingual Maltese-English flyers to all 211,000 households in Malta.
ALPAS	3000	Germany	ALPAS works to support and organise the Filipino community in Berlin and provides a bridge to the vibrant anti-imperialist struggle in the Philippines. ALPAS have deep connections to other liberation movements in Germany, the Philippines and globally. Grounded in a deep commitment to anti-capitalist and anti-imperialist principles, ALPAS views the Filipino people's long-standing struggle for liberation as a critical lens for understanding and resisting the global systems of oppression that affect
La Fondation Open Collective Europe (Playnet)	9000	Germany	A Berlin-based network of activists, artists, coders, and researchers building open-source tools and post-capitalist models that redistribute power and resources through mutual aid and collective creativity. This grant funded 10 play-lab sessions across Europe — games where communities design and test systems for self-organised surplus distribution — with a focus on housing rights.
Bundes Roma Verband e.V.	9000	Germany	The umbrella organization for post/migrant Roma in Germany. Established in 2012, the association aims to unite as many existing Roma associations, initiatives, and groups as possible under one roof, bring their shared concerns into the public sphere and advocate for their interests. The BRV emerged from within the community and remains deeply rooted in it. Its common foundation is the fight against discrimination and racism and the pursuit of equal rights for Roma people. This will use this grant for core funding, namely networking, empowerment and structural expansion of the representation of migrant Roma in Germany.

Omniatv	5000	Greece	A grassroots media and journalism cooperative platforming civil and human rights, migrant and refugee voices and stories and holding the government to account around police violence and unjust migration policies. With this grant OmniaTV organised the "Journals n spirits" Festival in Greece, a two-day meeting of independent media and watchdog group, which they hope will nurture the potential of participants to create a greater web of independent, substantial and effective information in the interest of the most underprivileged groups of people in society.
Avlida SOS	9000	Greece	An informal citizens' initiative working at the intersection of heritage preservation, cultural production (& the right to culture) and commons. They want to preserve the archaeological site of Avlida and repurpose the inactive facilities of the former Cement Factory for creative commoning. The threats of peripheral urbanisation around Athens are on the rise, with gentrification being and the cost of living rapidly increasing. This is why pushing back right now is so important and powerful. With this grant, Avlida SOS aims to expand their impact by integrating arts-based activism and empowering a network of local and international ambassadors to raise
Human Rights Legal Project (Captain Support Network Greece)	9000	Greece	Captain Support Network Greece is a grassroots collective of volunteers, activists and legal professionals that support people criminalised for steering boats or crossing borders in Greece, challenging the racist framing of such actions as "smuggling." Operating non-hierarchically across the country, they provide legal information, monitor trials, connect individuals with lawyers and cover legal costs for those unable to afford defence. Based in Samos and working within a wider European network, they are seeking funding to establish a part-time coordination role to strengthen their hotline, case management and advocacy efforts.

Community Rights in Greece	8500	Greece	A grassroots organisation in Greece that began as a community group for Ivorian nationals and grew into a broader advocate for migrant and refugee communities, working across municipal, national, and European levels on voting rights, political education, civic participation, and climate justice. This grant supports the funding for a coordinator role as well as their ongoing advocacy and campaign work.
LALA	9000	Greece	A DIY self-organised cultural haven for queer people in Athens that is a safe space to explore creativity whilst serving as a community hub the community. They host ongoing residencies, free cultural events and present workshops and talks with queer artists who have no or little visibility and who are active in political struggles. That said, they serve as an non-explicit political organising space where people and groups can convene and whether political storms together. Because of rampant gentrification, they are struggling to stay open which is why they seeked Guerrilla funding.
Önállóan lakni, közösségben élni (Living independently, in a community)	3000	Hungary	A disability rights organisation in Hungary fighting for the independent lives of physically disabled people through public actions, political advocacy and grassroots education, building broad coalitions with different grassroots movements by showing how accessibility wins benefit everyone, not just disabled people. This grant supports the build-up of their advocacy capacity.
Maldusa	5000	Italy	A grassroots cultural association with bases in Palermo and Lampedusa, fighting against the border regime and all forms of racism through an abolitionist approach that connects the struggle against borders to struggles against prisons and criminalisation. This grant provides core funding for their activist space in Palermo.
Coordinamento Migranti	9000	Italy	An intersectional, transgenerational collective of migrant and Italian, Black and white, queer and non-queer people who have been fighting exploitation, racism, and patriarchy, locally and transnationally, for years. Coordinamento Migranti operates through and across borders: part of the Transnational Migrants Coordination, the Permanent Assembly Against War (both born from the Transnational Social Strike Platform), and the feminist movement Non una di meno. Their work coordinates strategy around migration policy, feminism, environmentalism, and labour rights, refusing the segmentation that weakens movements. The grant went into organising their feminist festival in Bologna.

Kongresono	4490	Poland	A grassroots congress held every two years in Poland, born in 2013 as a queer, anti-authoritarian alternative to mainstream party congresses, creating space for activists from different regions, movements, and generations to meet, collaborate and build strategies for systemic change. This grant supports the organisation of the gathering.
Grupa Nieustajęcej Pomocy	9000	Poland	An informal, trans-led anarchist collective in Warsaw providing direct financial, material, and psychological support to queer people across the country (including trans youth, disabled people, and those experiencing homelessness or poverty) through crisis intervention, crowdfunding, and mutual aid. This grant provides core funding for the organisation.
Fondation Marius Jacob (BRAVA - Fundo de Resistência Rural)	9000	Portugal	BRAVA takes the community fund model pioneered by the Marius Jacob Foundation in Belgium, relaying decision-making power into the hands of communities, and pushes it further. Their ambition is a hub-and-fund in Portugal that equips local communities with the resources they need to organise against industrial extractivism: money, yes, but also skills, networks, and political infrastructure. The model moves away from a charity mindset with a participatory gloss but is a deliberate transfer of power to those on the frontlines of defending their land. This grant supported seed funding for the project to kick-off.
Desire Foundation	9000	Romania	A network of informal groups doing grassroots organising with disadvantaged communities, students, and young people across Romania. This grant supported the organisation of a five-day Activism Summer Camp combining politically engaged theory, workshops, roundtables, and direct connection between organising groups and external participants.
Common Front for Housing Rights (FCDL)	7500	Romania	An action group in Bucharest fighting for housing justice and adequate housing for all, supporting precarious communities through legal advice, solidarity at public council meetings, social housing applications, and visibility campaigns whilst organising collectively with those most at risk of eviction. Art Aparat	9000	Serbia	A grassroots organisation from Serbia that uses music as a radical tool for social justice, anti-racist organizing, and dismantling systemic oppression. They work alongside Roma youth, refugees, elderly folks and others pushed to the margins by systemic injustice, connecting through rhythm, voice, and care and using creative mediums for community activation and organising. They used the grant to strengthen their grassroots choir movement, support Roma youth leadership and grow a network of solidarity that uses music to mobilize for justice.
Građanske inicijative / Civic Initiatives	9000	Serbia	An organisation supporting civil society in Serbia to push back against government attacks and sustain grassroots activism under pressure. This grant supports their work countering threats to civic space and maintaining organising capacity despite state repression.
SviCe - Activist community Base	10000	Serbia	The first activist support centre in Serbia, stitching movements together and providing movement ecology support by keeping frontline defenders well resourced. This hub provides support around legal, psychological, security, logistical, strategic and communication topics for effective and safe activist work on the ground. The grant was used for hiring lawyers to be part of SviCe's legal team so that they are available to activists and can guarantee real safety and security. They also want to use the money for trainings and meetings of activists outside the metropole, and to plan activities in the lead-up to Serbian local elections.
Fundació Ulex	8000	Spain	An activist training organisation providing political education and capacity-building for movements across Europe. This grant supported bursaries for BIPOC activists in Central and Eastern Europe with limited resources to access training.
Asociación Remenat - Valley of Can MasDeu	7500	Spain	A unique space in the heart of Collserola park in Barcelona squatted in 2001 embodying over two decades of grassroots struggle for food sovereignty, eco-social justice and community land use against speculation. This grant supports the ongoing projects developing in the valley around feminist and agro-ecological transformation.

La Creatura Re(d)Productora Feminista	9000	Spain	A transfeminist organisation dedicated to the autonomy of non-normative identities, La Creatura promotes tools from the economy of resistance and fosters grassroots collaboration. They have been weaving networks of transfeminist projects across Barcelona: creating spaces for encounter, mutual support, and knowledge exchange. The work is economic in the deepest sense, not about inclusion in markets, but about building the infrastructures that make alternative livelihoods and relationships durable. This grant provides core funding for the organisation.
Revoltes de la Terra	7500	Spain	A climate and environmental justice movement born from gatherings in defence of the territories of the Països Catalans, bringing together diverse struggles to defend land and dignified life against ecocide, industrialisation, and the destruction of territory. Through their work, not only do they highlight the climate calamities that are felt on the ground, but also who is suffering most. This grant provides urgent funding for their first direct action.
ZeroPort	9000	Spain	A platform that leads the against aviation and increased emissions movement for the degrowth of Barcelona's port and airport. It aims to halt new developments of fossil fuel transport infrastructure while advocating for the need to degrow in material flows and pollution. Zeroport was established following a meeting on the degrowth of aviation, organised in collaboration with Stay Grounded - a previous Guerrilla grantee. Initially, 30 organisations were part of Zeroport, but now the platform has grown to include 150 collectives who all stand behind its mission. The funding went into reactivating the struggle against the new proposed expansion of Barcelona airport.
Olivia Linander (Sámi grassroots gathering)	5000	Sweden	A gathering bringing together indigenous rights and land defenders who organise from across Sápmi and beyond for a weekend in Jokkmokk to reconnect and re-energise the indigenous communities of the northern countries. The most pressing political issue for the gathering centers around community agency over the territories that are at risk of being removed by government and corporate power. This grant supports the organisation of Sámi Grassroots 2025.
